THE SOURCE ON NONPROLIFERATION AND GLOBAL SECURITY

The Name You Trust
Published by the independent Arms Control Association since 1972, Arms Control Today (ACT) reaches readers through its print editions, e-news update, and its website www.armscontrol.org.

Your Targeted Audience
Arms Control Today has a highly targeted circulation, including U.S. and foreign government officials and diplomats, scientists, university educators, students, consultants, contractors, active and retired military personnel, news media, and concerned citizens.

Reach Even More Key Decision-Makers
All members of Congress, plus a handful of key committees, and all missions of the United Nations now receive complimentary digital copies of ACT—thanks to generous grants from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation and the Ploughshares Fund, the Arms Control Association provides.

“I have solid admiration for the [Arms Control] Association and I read every line in the latest issue of Arms Control Today, which I think was superb.”

Hans Blix
former Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency

“I have always admired the work of the Arms Control Association and, in particular, I actually have a pretty good collection of Arms Control Today, which I have read throughout my career. It’s one of the few really serious publications on arms control issues, and I think it’s very important to keep that alive.”

Gary Samore
Special Assistant to President Obama and White House Coordinator for Arms Control and WMD Terrorism

“ACT has become indispensable! I think it is the combination of the critical period we are in and the quality of the product. I found myself reading the May issue from cover to cover.”

Frank von Hippel
former assistant director for national security in the White House Office of Science and Technology
